A MESSAGE FROM GOVERNOR MARTIN O'MALLEY

Dear Friends:

Let me take this opportunity to offer my warmest Rosh Hashanah greetings to Maryland's vibrant Jewish community.

This sacred time of the year gives us a chance to celebrate, rejoice and reflect. As your community celebrates with your family and friends, all Marylanders can benefit from the spirit of introspection and devotion which is the essence of Rosh Hashanah. This time calls for renewing a commitment to relating to others with great dignity, compassion, and respect. By strengthening our commitment to our faith, to our community, and to our relationships, will we be able to work towards a stronger, better, more united future.

As the new year begins, let us remember the belief that there is much more that unites us than divides us. As Americans, as Marylanders, and as members of the Jewish community we are united in our belief that by celebrating our diversity, sharing our uniqueness, and through working together, our tomorrows can be better than our today.

May we all be inscribed in the Book of Life for the coming year.

L'Shanah Tova!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Martin O'Malley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Martin" and last name "O'Malley" clearly distinguishable.
